HERTFORD COLLEGE
SENIOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Four Hertford College Senior Scholarships, tenable for two years, are available from 1st October 2018. The scholarships comprise £5,000 per year (split into equal payments made at the start of each term), prioritised graduate accommodation, and associate membership of the SCR including certain dining rights.

These scholarships are intended to be supplementary awards for students with full funding, but can be awarded to those coming to the end of their funding. Graduate students working for any higher degree or diploma at any Oxford college and department may apply, but those already studying at another college will have to migrate to Hertford in order to take up the award. The awards are preferentially made to matriculated students working towards a doctoral degree who have completed transfer of status at the time of application. The awards will be made to the applicants with the most outstanding record of academic achievement.

This year we are launching a new senior scholarship, which is restricted to Rhodes Scholars whose funding is at an end but who needs additional time to complete their studies in Oxford. The Scholarship is in memory of Alain Leroy Locke, the first African-American Rhodes Scholar, who entered Hertford in 1907. The Hertford College Alain Locke Senior Scholarship will be tenable for a single year, but will include free Hertford accommodation, in addition to the stipend and dining rights enjoyed by all senior scholars. Those applying should indicate on the application form that they wish to be considered for this award.

Applications should reach the Academic Office, Hertford College, Oxford OX1 3BW, by Friday 23rd March 2018. The application form should be accompanied by a one page curriculum vitae and a list of publications and or conference presentations. Two referees should be asked to supply references direct to the Academic Office (please see guidance for referees). Applications and references should be sent by email to academic.office@hertford.ox.ac.uk by the closing date. It is anticipated that interviews will be held in early in Trinity Term.
