Hello!

Firstly, congratulations on securing your place at Hertford. Well done for choosing the best Oxford College!

There's a lot to find out about Hertford and you'll be bombarded with information during your first few weeks here. That's why we're trying to get a head start by introducing you to the Library now...

You'll have access to the Library 24 hours a day, 7 days a week so if you really feel the urge to study throughout the night no-one will stop you. There's no limit on the number of books you can borrow - just remember to renew them every two weeks or you'll incur the Librarian's wrath. And fines.

But it's not just all about the books. The Library is a quiet place to study or, if you had a late night, sleep. We're fully teched up - we have wifi and everything - so you can access all the electronic resources that the University offers.

And if you need any help, the Librarian is there. Not all the time, but most days during office hours.

Anyway, that's enough for now. We look forward to welcoming you in October!
