Agreement

By signing below, we agree to the terms and conditions as set out on the competition website. This includes the video rights notice below.

We also confirm that the videos were created and edited only by these team members.

We hereby agree that the videos we submit may be used by Hertford College as they see fit. This use may include, but is not limited to, sharing on College and University websites and social media channels, publishing on YouTube, re-editing of material to appropriate formats, and creation of classroom resources around the videos. As far as possible, Hertford College will acknowledge the creation of the original video by the team members in all uses.
